

Cordial KindyPALs

Who wants to be nice? Why? In this course, we will explore the reason why it is important to behave nicely. We will learn about good manners (common courtesies and table manners) through practical exercises. Interview techniques will also be covered; students will learn interviewing techniques, such as eye-contact, body language, etc. to gain confidence for the upcoming interviews. Relaxation techniques will be discussed to help with nervousness before the interview. If applicable, enrolled students may request a mock-interview with our Director of Studies upon completion of course.
