

Gracious JuniorPALs

Children face a shocking new environment entering primary schools. They are dealing with a lot of frustrations while adapting to a new system. This is one of the biggest challenges in their early life. They are leaving their comfort zone for a more demanding daily routine and are obliged to take up more responsibilities. In this course, students learn to cope with new challenges with a positive attitude, handle objections from peers and adults, and how to express their emotions and opinion in a polite and socially-acceptable way which comprises of tone of speech, body language, etiquette and common courtesies.
